IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
SIXTH APPELLATE DISTRICT

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

STERLIN HALLEY,

Defendant and Appellant.

H033566

(Santa Clara County

Super. Ct. No. CC814446)

After police apprehended defendant, Sterlin Halley on a stolen bicycle, he was arrested and charged with one count of receiving stolen property (Pen. Code, § 496, subd. (a)) and one count of resisting arrest (Pen. Code, § 148, subd. (a).) He appeals from a judgment entered after he pleaded no contest to those charges pursuant to the plea agreement. In accordance with that agreement, the trial court placed defendant on three years formal probation, on the condition that he serve nine months in county jail, and that he pay a restitution fund fine of $220 and two $20.00 court security fees. The court also imposed an equal probation revocation fine which it stayed, granted defendant 210 days credit for time served and imposed a variety of probation conditions. Defendant objected to the drug testing and substance abuse program conditions, arguing that they were not reasonably related to this crime. The court overruled the objection. This timely appeal ensued.

We appointed counsel to represent defendant in this court. Appointed counsel filed an opening brief which states the case and the facts but raises no specific issues. We notified defendant of his right to submit written argument in his own behalf within 30 days. That period has elapsed and we have received no written argument from defendant. Pursuant to People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, we have reviewed the entire record and have concluded that there is no arguable issue on appeal.

DISPOSITION

The judgment is affirmed.
